This year, in our 2017-19 state budget, we eliminated the state portion of the property tax. Now, all Wisconsin taxpayers will see a big zero for the state portion on their property tax bill from 2017 on!

their golden years. Business owners can use their extra money to reinvest in their growth, create new jobs, and expand our economy.

We believe you know how to spend your hard-earned money better than the government does. That's why, throughout Wisconsin, our property tax relief is putting more money in the pockets of hardworking taxpayers, so we can work together to make our state a better place to live and work.
